Scientists have investigated what lies beneath the surface of Loch Ness

Use the information from above and your plan from yesterday to write a newspaper article about The Loch Ness Monster.

A template for a newspaper article. At the top, there is a decorative ribbon graphic. Below it is a wide rectangular box for a title. The main body of the article is divided into two vertical columns. The left column contains a large empty rectangular box for an image, followed by a smaller empty box, and then several horizontal lines for text. The right column consists of a single vertical column of horizontal lines for text.
