What could have happened?

What feelings could they be feeling?

What could you say to them?

○ The Interpretation Key

There's a magic word... it's not very big... but it is very important...

What could this word be?

Look at these sentences.

I can't run very far.

I don't have good handwriting.

I can't swim.

Can you imagine the people who said these?

*Can you think of a sentence
like these that you might say about yourself?*

The magic word

So.... How is YET a magic word?

Watch this video for a quick song all about the "POWER OF YET"!

Seriously, this is what it does...

I can't run very far yet.

I don't have good handwriting yet.

I can't swim yet.

Adding the word "yet" to anything makes it possible.

It might not be easy, but it's possible. ★

All we have to do now is think about how we might achieve it.

What can we do? ★

I can't run very far, but I can try to run a bit further every day.

I don't have good handwriting, but I can practice for five minutes every day.

I can't swim, but I can ask an adult to take me swimming once a week.

We sometimes reach a HURDLE - something stopping us from reaching our goal

We can come up with our own tools and ideas to help overcome these problems - and not give up!

See if you can show how you can use the magical power of YET!

e.g. I don't know my eight times tables	yet	but I am... trying hard to learn them as a poem.
1.	yet
2.	yet
3.	yet
